AI-Generated Summary

Okay, here's a summary based on the provided voice screening results, following the guidelines: "Your voice screening suggests that there may be some changes happening in your neurological health, and the score is higher than we'd like it to be. The trend also indicates a worsening, so it would be a good idea to schedule a visit with a neurologist or your primary care doctor soon, just to get a clearer picture of what's going on. They can provide the best guidance for you!"
